PASSIONATE ABOUT YOUTH MINISTRY

Experience

Ferndale Bible Chapel 2020-2021

Youth Intern

- I helped in raising a strong team of nine leaders that I have left in charge of the youth ministry. In January 2023, I started up a Friday night youth group at the Windsor East Community Centre.
- In June 2022, by God's grace, my team and I ran a holiday club for about 100 children from the Windsor East community, based at Fontainebleau Community Church

Rosebank Union Church 2018-2019

Youth Intern

- Youth Leader
- Library Assistant
- Counselling Assistant

Street Cafe at Rosebank Union Church 2017-2018

Waiter

- During my final year at high school, I worked part-time for a few hours every Sunday at the café at the church

Education

About Me

- I am excited about bringing young people to a saving knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ and helping them grow in discipleship.
- From 2017 to 2019, I was involved with Ingonyama, a children's ministry in Windsor East.
- Towards the end of 2022, I started working alongside Doorway to Dignity on the Micro Community Food Carts (MCFC) project, a youth job creation and skills development initiative in Windsor East.
- I am currently studying towards a diploma in French studies, which I aim to complete by the end of 2023.

REFERENCE LETTER FOR ENOCK SALUMU

Enock served on the Youth Leadership team with me from 2018-2019 at Rosebank Union Church. Enock always displayed great enthusiasm and commitment. He was passionate about walking alongside young men and helping them grow in their relationship with God. Enock had a teachable spirit and was always willing to learn. Enock was helpful and would regularly offer to assist me in my role as Youth Pastor.

If you wish to contact me for more details around my experience working with Enock, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

David Myburgh
Former Youth Pastor at Rosebank Union Church
